The probability is that the special suffrage committee of the chamber, appointed as the result of the last meeting, when a resolution demanding suffrage for the District was adopted will favor this plan. Although the resolution as adopted at the last meeting was phrased Mr. Praeger last night. "What I have specifically demanding representation in the electoral college, the committee appointed under that resolution is said to be strongly in favor of action looking to unlimited constitutional suffrage here. A meeting of the committee was held vesterday for the first time. Members were requested by Albert Schulteis, the chairman, to write out their views on the subject and submit them at the next meeting of the committee.

McAdoo Would Protect Cargoes of Vessels Clearing from American Ports from Unneutral Spying. Determined to prevent belilgerent war hips in the Atlantic from obtaining ad argoes aboard ships which clear from Treasury McAdoo yesterday issued an order to collectors of customs forbidding them to make public information about any outward bound cargo until thirty days after clearance.

The step was taken by the Secretary as a result of reports which have been culated that warships off the Atlantic coast had been able to locate and seize vessels bearing cargoes of conditions contraband in a remarkably short time after they left our ports. The convey ance of such information to belligeren shine is, of course, an unneutral act, and various stories have been affost as to the means employed in keeping the comnunders of these ships advised to probable prises. Mr. McAdoo telegraphed this Col. Brits Led Loyal Forces in As London, Oct. 38.-Official announce ments by the South African government reveal the fact that Great Britain has a real war on her hands in that part of the world. The seriousness of the Boer rebellion is shown by the announcement made tonight by the official press bueau of the war office in London that Gen. Boths, himself, has taken command of British troops in the field and that he is pursuing the rebels under Gen. Beyers, who was formerly commander of the

MAP SHOWING APPROXIMATE POSITION OF TROOPS IN EASTERN WAR THEATER

In this map the present position of the German line after the retreat from Warsaw is shown as well as the Viatuia valley and also the lines of defenses upon which the Germans are reported to be falling back. The German advance into Russian Poland began September 25. On October 13 a German column was within eight, miles of Warsaw. After four days of hard fighting, is which the German infantry vainly assaulted the Russian positions and the Russian infantry was unable to gain in counter attacks, the Russians began their finaking movement, sending ten divisions of envairy from Novo Georgievsk, as indicated in the above map, around the extreme German left to strike at the German retreat. The suddenness of the attack produced a panie, and the German retreat on Lowisca and Skierniewica degenerated into flight. The Russians are continuing the fururit, evidently intending to give the Germans no opportunity to make a stand and resume the defensive abort of their previously prepared positions ilong the Silesian frontier, which are also indicated on the
